General Overview: In this class, students will have the opportunity to build their language proficiency in four areas: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The primary goal in the study of a foreign language is to learn to communicate. Therefore vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation will be emphasized. The study of culture, geography, history, and current events will be included in the curriculum.

Grading: All assignments will have an assigned point value. Grading will be based on tests, quizzes, in class assignments, homework, projects, and class participation. The following grading scale will be used:

A 100 – 92%	B+ 87.9 – 86	C+ 77.9 – 76	D+ 67.9 – 66	F 57.9 and below
A- 91.9 – 88%	B 85.9 – 82	C 75.9 – 72	D 65.9 – 62
	B- 81.9 – 78	C- 71.9 – 68	D- 61.9 – 58

Starter Quizzes: Every class will start with a quiz on the material learned throughout the unit, focusing on the what was taught from the previous day’s lesson. The quiz will start when the tardy bell sounds. If a student enters the class after the quiz starts, they will not have the opportunity to revisit missed questions. Retakes are not allowed.

Tests: Tests are designed to measure the student’s mastery on the material learned. Each test will consist of sections covering vocabulary, grammar, reading and writing, and speaking. It is not guarantee test make-ups will be offered. It is highly recommended you study to do your best on the test the first time.

Late Work: If an assignment is turned in one class day late it will have a starting value of 50%. If an assignment is turned in 2 class days late it will be recorded as having been turned in, but will receive a score of 0 points. It is recommended that every student still turn in every assignment even if they are not going to receive points so they can be eligible to do extra credit for the term.

Make-up Work: Students who are absent should obtain the missed work to be made up. Every student will have access to each assignment via the class web site. <http://adkinsonspanol.weebly.com/>

Extra Credit: No extra credit will be given unless ALL homework, projects, in class assignments, and tests have been completed and turned in.

Class Web Site: <http://adkinsonespanol.weebly.com/> The purpose of the class web site is that the student can access class material from anywhere in the world (except on campus on the Guest network). Also the site allows for parents and guardians to know what is going on, and know where their student can get the assignment if it is “lost” or is “unattainable from the teacher”. Everything the student learns and/or is assigned will be on the class’ web site.

Cell Phones: Cell Phones are not for personal use in class. There will be situations in which cell phone use will be permitted, but only with teacher approval.

MP3 Players (iPods): MP3 devices are allowed in class when the following circumstances are met:

1. The teacher is not teaching/Instructing
2. You are not working in a group
3. You are working on your own
4. Your music is not audible by those students around you.
